

 Zaragoza
AYUNTAMIENTO

ZARAGOZA
RIGHT HERE, RIGHT NOW

THE CITY OF TWO CATHEDRALS

Unique in Europe, Zaragoza has two active Catholic cathedrals that face each other on one of Europe's largest squares: the Basilica del Pilar, a Marian shrine, and La Seo with a Mudéjar wall in UNESCO's "Mudéjar Architecture of Aragon."

GOYA AND ZARAGOZA

Zaragoza is where Goya learned to see—discovering light, color, and a critical gaze. Follow his legacy in frescoes, museums, and streets that shaped one of art's boldest voices.

WORLD HERITAGE

Zaragoza's Aragonese Mudéjar is inscribed on UNESCO's World Heritage List. Discover it here.

TOURIST SERVICES

Discover all we offer for an effortless visit : multilingual help, guided tours, maps, itineraries, booking support, and practical info—all in one place.

ZARAGOZA, WORLD CAPITAL OF GARNACHA (GRENACHE)

Born in Aragón and beloved worldwide, Garnacha makes Zaragoza a wine-tourism capital. Within an hour, three DOs—Cariñena, Calatayud, and Campo de Borja—offer vineyards, cellar tours, tastings, and bold, expressive wines.

THE ESSENCE OF THE CITY

Plan your visit and don't miss the must-see highlights that make Zaragoza the city where everything happens.

ZARAGOZA TOUR GUIDE

Let a certified Zaragoza tour guide reveal hidden corners and landmarks—from Mudéjar gems to riverfront strolls and tapas quarters.

ONLINE SHOP

Book city experiences at Zaragoza Tourism's online shop—tours, passes, and special activities. Quick, simple planning for your perfect visit.

WHERE TO STAY

Zaragoza offers over 10,000 beds in hotels, boutique stays, and aparthotels—high quality and value, from classics to design hotels for every budget.

GASTRONOMY

Michelin-starred dining, creative kitchens, and tapas. Seasonal vegetables, truffles, Ternasco lamb, borage, craft beers, and DO wines drive high culinary standards.

BROCHURES

Official maps and guides—themed routes, family plans, art, museums, wine & tapas. Download them to your phone and explore Zaragoza at your own pace.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Visit the Zaragoza Tourism website—everything you need to explore our city in one place.